Victory Litigation Fund I, LP (the "Company") formed in Delaware as a Limited Partner, on June 2, 2023.

The Company is located at 8 The Green, Suite 11628, Dover, DE 19901.

The Company's website is <https://www.victorydfi.com/>.

The First Campaign will be Camp Lejeune Water Contamination Claims. Between the early 1950s and late 1980s, water contamination at this base camp may have exposed thousands of people to serious health risks for decades. Service members and their families who lived on the base were unknowingly drinking contaminated water, and using it to bathe, cook, and wash their clothes.

The information available on or through our website is not a part of this Form C/A. In making an investment decision with respect to our Securities, you should only consider the information contained in this Form C/A.

The Business

We were formed to engage in the business of investing in the legal services marketplace to originate, manage, and finance legal and administrative claims through carefully selected law firms on behalf of plaintiffs.

The Company was formed in 2023 as a venture equity fund. It strives to build evergreen wealth in order to advance social justice on behalf of veterans. This mission started in 2016 as a tribute to Ron's son who died in an overdose. His original plans were to address the human trafficking problem. Then, the Camp Lejeune Justice Act was passed, and Ron realized he was the right guy, in the right place, at the right time. He has the experience and credentials to make an impact for veterans. He was stationed at Camp Lejeune and his family was impacted—this is personal on behalf of veterans

RISK FACTORS

Risks Related to the Company's Business and Industry

Legal privileges related to Litigation and Litigation Financing

There are legal privileges that exempt certain information from disclosure. The privilege for attorney-client communications protects communications between clients and their attorneys. The purpose of the attorney-client privilege is to encourage frank discussions and the rendering of sound legal advice. The privilege for attorney work product protects documents or material things prepared by a party or a party's representative in anticipation of litigation.

We have no operating history upon which you can evaluate our performance, and accordingly, our prospects must be considered in light of the risks that any new company encounters.

We were incorporated under the laws of Delaware on June 2, 2023. Accordingly, we have no history upon which an evaluation of our prospects and future performance can be made. Our proposed operations are subject to all business risks associated with a new enterprise. The likelihood of our creation of a viable business must be considered in light of the problems, expenses, difficulties, complications, and delays frequently encountered in connection with the inception of a business, operation in a competitive industry, and the continued development of advertising, promotions, and a corresponding client base. We anticipate that our operating expenses will increase for the near future. There can be no assurances that we will ever operate profitably. You should consider the Company's business, operations, and prospects in light of the risks, expenses and challenges faced as an early-stage company.

We may face potential difficulties in obtaining capital.

We may have difficulty raising needed capital in the future as a result of, among other factors, our lack of an approved product and revenues from sales, as well as the inherent business risks associated with our company and present and future market conditions. Our business currently does not generate any sales and future sources of revenue may not be sufficient to meet our future capital requirements. We will require additional funds to execute our business strategy and conduct our operations. If adequate funds are unavailable, we may be required to delay, reduce the scope of or eliminate one or more of our [research, development or commercialization programs, product launches or marketing efforts,] any of which may materially harm our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

In order for the Company to compete and grow, it must attract, recruit, retain and develop the necessary personnel who have the needed experience.

Recruiting and retaining highly qualified personnel is critical to our success. These demands may require us to hire additional personnel and will require our existing management personnel to develop additional expertise. We face intense competition for personnel. The failure to attract and retain personnel or to develop such expertise could delay or halt the development and commercialization of our product candidates. If we experience difficulties in hiring and retaining personnel in key positions, we could suffer from delays in product development, loss of customers and sales and diversion of management resources, which could adversely affect operating results. Our consultants and advisors may be employed by third parties and may have commitments under consulting or advisory contracts with third parties that may limit their availability to us.

Through our operations, we collect and store certain personal information that our customers provide to purchase products or services, enroll in promotional programs, register on our web site, or otherwise communicate and interact with us.

We may share information about such persons with vendors that assist with certain aspects of our business. Security could be compromised, and confidential customer or business information misappropriated. Loss of customer or business information could disrupt our operations, damage our reputation, and expose us to claims from customers, financial institutions, payment card associations and other persons, any of which could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, and results of operations. In addition, compliance with tougher privacy and information security laws and standards may result in significant expense due to increased investment in technology and the development of new operational processes.

The Company's success depends on the experience and skill of the board of directors, its executive officers, and key employees.

In particular, the Company is dependent on Ron Lasorsa who is CEO Jan 2022 to present of the Managing Entity. The loss of Ron Lasorsa or any member of the board of directors or executive officer could harm the Company's business, financial condition, cash flow and results of operations.

Although dependent on certain key personnel, the Company does not have any key man life insurance policies on any such people.

The Company is dependent on Ron Lasorsa in order to conduct its operations and execute its business plan, however, the Company has not purchased any insurance policies with respect to those individuals in the event of their death or disability. Therefore, if any of Ron Lasorsa die or become disabled, the Company will not receive any compensation to assist with such person's absence. The loss of such person could negatively affect the Company and its operations.

We have not prepared any audited financial statements.

Therefore, you have no audited financial information regarding the Company's capitalization or assets or liabilities on which to make your investment decision. If you feel the information provided is insufficient, you should not invest in the Company.

We are subject to income taxes as well as non-income based taxes, such as payroll, sales, use, value-added, net worth, property and goods and services taxes, in the U.S

Significant judgment is required in determining our provision for income taxes and other tax liabilities. In the ordinary course of our business, there are many transactions and calculations where the ultimate tax determination is uncertain. Although we believe that our tax estimates are reasonable: (i) there is no assurance that the final determination of tax audits or tax disputes will not be different from what is reflected in our income tax provisions, expense amounts for non-income based taxes and accruals and (ii) any material differences could have an adverse effect on our financial position and results of operations in the period or periods for which determination is made.

We are not subject to Sarbanes-Oxley regulations and lack the financial controls and safeguards required of public companies.

We do not have the internal infrastructure necessary, and are not required, to complete an attestation about our financial controls that would be required under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. There can be no assurance that there are no significant deficiencies or material weaknesses in the quality of our financial controls. We expect to incur additional expenses and diversion of management's time if and when it becomes necessary to perform the system and process evaluation, testing and remediation required in order to comply with the management certification and auditor attestation requirements.

We face risks related to health epidemics and other outbreaks, which could significantly disrupt the Company's operations and could have a material adverse impact on us.

The outbreak of pandemics and epidemics could materially and adversely affect the Company's business, financial condition, and results of operations. If a pandemic occurs in areas in which we have material operations or sales, the Company's business activities originating from affected areas, including sales, materials, and supply chain related activities, could be adversely affected. Disruptive activities could include the temporary closure of facilities used in the Company's supply chain processes, restrictions on the export or shipment of products necessary to run the Company's business, business closures in impacted areas, and restrictions on the Company's employees' or consultants' ability to travel and to meet with customers, vendors, or other business relationships. The extent to which a pandemic or other health outbreak impacts the Company's results will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted, including new information which may emerge concerning the severity of a virus and the actions to contain it or treat its impact, among others. Pandemics can also result in social, economic, and labor instability which may adversely impact the Company's business.

If the Company's employees or employees of any of the Company's vendors, suppliers or customers become ill or are quarantined and in either or both events are therefore unable to work, the Company's operations could be subject to disruption. The extent to which a pandemic affects the Company's results will depend on future developments that are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted.

Fluctuations in the mix of customer demand for our various types of solution offerings could impact our financial performance and ability to forecast performance.

Due to fluctuations in customer needs, changes in customer industries, and general economic conditions, customer demand for the range of our offerings varies from time to time and is not predictable. In addition, our gross margins vary by customer and by segment and the mix of services provided to our customers could impact our results of operations as certain of our customers and segments have different gross margin profiles. Generally, the profitability of an account increases over time. As a result, the mix of solutions we provide to our customers varies at any given time, both within a quarter and from quarter-to-quarter. These variations in service mix impact gross margins and the predictability of gross margins for any period. You should not rely on the results of any one quarter as an indication of our future performance.

Failure to obtain new clients or renew client contracts on favorable terms could adversely affect results of operations.

We may face pricing pressure in obtaining and retaining our clients. Our clients may be able to seek price reductions from us when they renew a contract, when a contract is extended, or when the client's business has significant volume changes. They may also reduce services if they decide to move services in-house. On some occasions, this pricing pressure results in lower revenue from a client than we had anticipated based on our previous agreement with that client. This reduction in revenue could result in an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

Further, failure to renew client contracts on favorable terms could have an adverse effect on our business. Our contracts with clients generally run for several years and include liquidated damage provisions that provide for early termination fees. Terms are generally renegotiated prior to the end of a contract's term. If we are not successful in achieving a high rate of contract renewals on favorable terms, our business and results of operations could be adversely affected.

The Company may extend the Offering Deadline beyond what is currently stated herein. This means that your investment may continue to be held in escrow while the Company attempts to raise the Target Offering Amount even after the Offering Deadline stated herein is reached. While you have the right to cancel your investment in the event the Company extends the Offering Deadline, if you choose to reconfirm your investment, your investment will not be accruing interest during this time and will simply be held until such time as the new Offering Deadline is reached without the Company receiving the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be returned to you without interest or deduction, or the Company receives the Target Offering Amount, at which time it will be released to the Company to be used as set forth herein. Upon or shortly after the release of such funds to the Company, the Securities will be issued and distributed to you.

The Company has the right to conduct multiple closings during the Offering.

If the Company meets certain terms and conditions, an intermediate close of the Offering can occur, which will allow the Company to draw down on half of the proceeds committed and captured in the Offering during the relevant period. The Company may choose to continue the Offering thereafter. Investors should be mindful that this means they can make multiple investment commitments in the Offering, which may be subject to different cancellation rights. For example, if an intermediate close occurs and later a material change occurs as the Offering continues, Investors whose investment commitments were previously closed upon will not have the right to re-confirm their investment as it will be deemed to have been completed prior to the material change.

Risks Related to the Securities

The Securities will not be freely tradable under the Securities Act until one year from the initial purchase date. Although the Securities may be tradable under federal securities law, state securities regulations may apply, and each Investor should consult with their attorney.

You should be aware of the long-term nature of this investment. There is not now and likely will not ever be a public market for the Securities. Because the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state or foreign jurisdiction, the Securities have transfer restrictions and cannot be resold in the United States except pursuant to Rule 501 of Regulation CF. It is not currently contemplated that registration under the Securities Act or other securities laws will be affected. Limitations on the transfer of the Securities may also adversely affect the price that you might be able to obtain for the Securities in a private sale. Investors should be aware of the long-term nature of their investment in the Company. Each Investor in this Offering will be required to represent that they are purchasing the Securities for their own account, for investment purposes and not with a view to resale or distribution thereof.

Investors will not become equity holders and will not have voting rights.

The investment interest is exclusively in any proceeds from the Litigation—not the Company itself. Investors will not have an ownership claim to the Company or to any of its assets other than the proceeds from the Litigation nor have the right to vote upon matters of the Company or the Litigation.

Investors will not be entitled to any inspection or information rights other than those required by law.

Investors will not have the right to inspect the books and records of the Company or to receive financial or other information from the Company, other than as required by law. Other security holders of the Company may have such rights. Regulation CF requires only the provision of an annual report on Form C/A and no additional information. Additionally, there are numerous methods by which the Company can terminate annual report obligations, resulting in no information rights, contractual, statutory, or otherwise, owed to Investors. This lack of information could put Investors at a disadvantage in general and with respect to other security holders, including certain security holders who have rights to periodic financial statements and updates from the Company such as quarterly unaudited financials, annual projections and budgets, and monthly progress reports, among other things.

There is no present market for the Securities and we have arbitrarily set the price.

The Offering price was not established in a competitive market. We have arbitrarily set the price of the Securities with reference to the general status of the securities market and other relevant factors. The Offering price for the Securities should not be considered an indication of the actual value of the Securities and is not based on our asset value, net worth, revenues, or other established criteria of value. We cannot guarantee that the Securities can be resold at the Offering price or at any other price.

There is no guarantee of a return on an Investor's investment.

There is no assurance that an Investor will realize a return on their investment or that they will not lose their entire investment. For this reason, each Investor should read this Form C/A and all exhibits carefully, review all public filings on the docket, and should consult with their attorney and business advisor prior to making any investment decision.

THE SECURITIES OFFERED INVOLVE A HIGH DEGREE OF RISK AND MAY RESULT IN THE LOSS OF YOUR ENTIRE INVESTMENT. ANY PERSON CONSIDERING THE PURCHASE OF THESE SECURITIES SHOULD BE AWARE OF THESE AND OTHER FACTORS SET FORTH IN THIS FORM C/A AND SHOULD CONSULT WITH HIS OR HER LEGAL, TAX AND FINANCIAL ADVISORS PRIOR TO MAKING AN INVESTMENT IN THE SECURITIES. THE SECURITIES SHOULD ONLY BE PURCHASED BY PERSONS WHO CAN AFFORD TO LOSE ALL OF THEIR INVESTMENT.

BUSINESS

Description of the Business

We were formed to engage in the business of investing in the legal services marketplace to originate, manage and finance legal and administrative claims through carefully selected law firms on behalf of plaintiffs.

VLF was formed in 2023 as a venture equity fund. It strives to build evergreen wealth in order to advance social justice on behalf of veterans. This mission started in 2016 as a tribute to Ron's son who died in an overdose. His original plans were to address the human trafficking problem. Then, the Camp Lejeune Justice Act was passed, and Ron realized he was the right guy, in the right place, at the right time. He has the experience and credentials to make an impact for veterans. He was stationed at Camp Lejeune and his family was impacted—this is personal on behalf of veterans

Business Plan

We were formed to engage in the business of investing in the legal services marketplace to originate, manage and finance legal and administrative claims through carefully selected law firms on behalf of plaintiffs. The Company will pursue contingency-based cases that fall within three categories: (1) Government administrative claims (2) Mass tort or class action litigation (3) Single-event litigation. The Company will pursue cases in each category that meet the following criteria: · Individuals or businesses are eligible to participate in the administrative program or to file a legal claim and have similar underlying circumstances; · Individuals or businesses are compensated based on their unique situation or specific injuries; · Awards are allocated to individuals and businesses from a government established program or from a court-ordered Qualified Settlement Fund.

The Camp Lejeune Water Contamination Claims is a litigation that will be pursued.

The U.S. Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune is a military base on the east coast located in Jacksonville, North Carolina. Currently, it's part of a combined installation with the New River Marine Corps Air Station. The base camp is home to marine expeditionary forces and other units.

Between the early 1950s and late 1980s, water contamination at this base camp may have exposed thousands of people to serious health risks for decades. Service members and their families who lived on the base were unknowingly drinking contaminated water, and using it to bathe, cook, and wash their clothes.

Veterans who were present at Camp Lejeune during this period who later developed specific diseases may be entitled to disability compensation.

Since its founding in 1942, Camp Lejeune has been a permanent or temporary home for thousands of military service members and their families. It's been a place of work or home for thousands more civilian contractors and employees.

In the 1980s, environmental testing at Camp Lejeune unveiled that the water supply going to these soldiers and civilians was dangerously contaminated. The water was contaminated with chemicals from a dry-cleaning company and the base water treatment facilities in the area. The Hadnot Point and Tarawa terrace water treatment plants are among those in question. The contamination exposed residents to over 3,000 times the ATSDR recommended safe limit for such toxic chemicals.

According to the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry (ATSDR), multiple contamination sources were identified. They included waste disposal sites and underground storage tanks. The toxic compounds found at Camp Lejeune are referred to as Volatile Organic Compounds (VOCs), and they make up products such as degreasers and dry-cleaning solvents.

A nearby dry-cleaning company was using such solvents, which ended up contaminating the groundwater. The surrounding areas also had waste disposal sites and industrial spills that contributed to the contamination. The ATSDR says that water wells supplying the base surpassed its set limits. The contamination was first discovered in 1982, though it took over three years for the wells to be shut down.

Later studies showed there are more than 70 other chemicals that caused health risks. The most hazardous and prevalent of these were as follows:

Trichloroethylene (TCE) and Perchloroethylene (PCE)

TCE is an industrial chemical used in the manufacture of hydrofluorocarbons. It was commonly used as a degreaser and solvent on metal military equipment. The Hadnot Point facility was found to be highly contaminated with TCE.

Both TCE and PCE have been shown in several studies to raise the risk of developing several cancers, including liver and kidney cancers, along with some support for non-Hodgkin's lymphoma and Hodgkin's disease. Exposure to TCE is also potentially associated with cervical cancer. Certain data suggests associations between exposure to TCE with multiple myeloma and colon, prostate, and laryngeal cancers.

Dry cleaning and laundry work, which often involve using PCE and TCE, is also believed to be associated with pancreatic, kidney, esophageal, cervical, and lung cancers. There's also growing support that they are associated with prostate, bladder, and colon cancers.

Benzene

Benzene is a known carcinogen that usually promotes both acute myeloid leukemia (AML), multiple myeloma, chronic lymphocytic leukemia (CLL), and non-Hodgkin lymphoma.

Vinyl Chloride

This is a chemical produced by burning plastics like PVC pipes. It's highly carcinogenic and can cause several forms of cancer, including angiosarcoma, colon cancer, and testicular cancer. Exposure to vinyl chloride has been shown to result in up to 5 times higher rates of liver cancer, lung cancer, and angiosarcoma.

Toluene

Studies involving workers exposed to toluene demonstrated an increase in the occurrence of cancers of the breasts, lungs, stomach, esophagus, colon, and particularly the rectum. Additionally, the substance is known to increase the risk of lympholeukaemia, lymphosarcoma, as well as non-Hodgkins and Hodgkin's lymphoma in workers exposed to it.

Other Contaminants

While the toxins listed above occurred in the highest quantities in the water at Camp Lejeune, many other highly carcinogenic toxins were found. Some of these include mercury and other heavy metals, assorted polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbons (PAHs), pesticides, and others.

The hazardous chemicals outlined above have been linked to several debilitating health conditions. These include:

- Esophageal cancer
- Leukemia
- Kidney cancer
- Breast cancer
- Bladder cancer
- Lung cancer
- Renal toxicity
- Female infertility
- Multiple myeloma
- Miscarriage
- Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma
- Scleroderma
- Myelodysplastic syndrome
- Neurobehavioral effects
- Hepatic steatosis

Qualifying family members include those where the sponsor (a qualifying veteran) was on active duty and served at Camp Lejeune for 30 days or more between August 1, 1953, and December 31, 1987, lived on the base for 30 days or more within the same dates, or was a dependent or spouse of the veteran during the same period. This includes the infants born of women that were pregnant on the base during the same period.

THE OFFERING AND THE SECURITIES

The Offering

The Company is offering up to 5,000,000 of Certificates Of Participation (“Purchase Agreements”) for up to $5,000,000.00. The Company is attempting to raise a minimum amount of $1,000,000.00 in this Offering (the "Minimum Amount"). The Company must receive commitments from investors in an amount totaling the Minimum Amount by October 18, 2024 (the "Offering Deadline") in order to receive any funds. If the sum of the investment commitments does not equal or exceed the Minimum Amount by the Offering Deadline, no Securities will be sold in the Offering, investment commitments will be canceled and committed funds will be returned to potential investors without interest or deductions. The Company has the right to extend the Offering Deadline at its discretion. The Company will accept investments in excess of the Minimum Amount up to $5,000,000.00 (the "Maximum Amount") and the additional Securities will be allocated at the Company’s discretion .

The price of the Securities does not necessarily bear any relationship to the asset value, net worth, revenues, or other established criteria of value, and should not be considered indicative of the actual value of the Securities.

In order to purchase the Securities, you must make a commitment to purchase by completing the Subscription Agreement. Purchaser funds will be held in escrow with BankVista, until the Minimum Amount of investments is reached. Purchasers may cancel an investment commitment until 48 hours prior to the Offering Deadline or the Closing, whichever comes first using the cancellation mechanism provided by the Intermediary. The Company will notify Purchasers when the Minimum Amount has been reached. If the Company reaches the Minimum Amount prior to the Offering Deadline, it may close the Offering at least five (5) days after reaching the Minimum Amount and providing notice to the Purchasers.

If any material change (other than reaching the Minimum Amount) occurs related to the Offering prior to the Offering Deadline, the Company will provide notice to Purchasers and receive reconfirmations from Purchasers who have already made commitments. If a Purchaser does not reconfirm his or her investment commitment after a material change is made to the terms of the Offering, the Purchaser’s investment commitment will be canceled, and the committed funds will be returned without interest or deductions. If a Purchaser does not cancel an investment commitment before the Minimum Amount is reached, the funds will be released to the Company upon closing of the Offering and the Purchaser will receive the Securities in exchange for his or her investment. Any Purchaser funds received after the initial closing will be released to the Company upon a subsequent closing and the Purchaser will receive Securities via Digital Registry in exchange for his or her investment as soon as practicable thereafter.

Subscription Agreements are not binding on the Company until accepted by the Company, which reserves the right to reject, in whole or in part, in its sole and absolute discretion, any subscription. If the Company rejects all or a portion of any subscription, the applicable prospective Purchaser’s funds will be returned without interest or deduction.

The price of the Securities was determined arbitrarily. The minimum amount that a Purchaser may invest in the Offering is $1000.00.

Investment Returns

LAW FIRM agrees to pay CME a fixed performance fee per case for completing specific services outlined in the Management Services Agreement (“MSA”).

Pursuant to this Agreement, LAW FIRM agrees to pay a per-case performance fee to CME. The performance fee specific to each underlying case is payable within 30 days of when the LAW FIRM receives its legal fee on that particular case.

The Investment Return is calculated by multiplying the Final Cost of Acquisition (“FCOA”) by a contractually agreed-upon multiplier of 10. For every Lawsuit originated by Seller, Law Firm will pay $10 for every $1 Seller expended in originating the Lawsuit.

The FCOA is calculated by taking the total funds spent during an advertising campaign to originate cases divided by the final number of cases filed with the court.

Final Cost of Acquisition Calculation

For example, if $100,000 is the total amount of funds spent during an advertising campaign, and 10 cases are filed with the court, the FCOA is $10,000 per case ($100,000 / 10).

The FCOA figure is used to determine the performance fee (as outlined in the following sections).

Performance Fee Calculation Methodology

The performance fee is calculated by multiplying the FCOA by a contractually agreed upon Multiplier (“Multiplier”). Thus, the per case performance fee = FCOA * Multiplier.

The Multiplier is determined based on the amount of capital contributed by a law firm in proportion to the amount of funds contributed by the CME, as follows:

- 1) If LAW FIRM contributes $1 for every $1 provided by CME, the Multiplier is three. The performance fee is three times the FCOA.
- 2) If LAW FIRM contributes $1 for every $4 provided by CME, the Multiplier is six. The performance fee is six times the FCOA.
- 3) If LAW FIRM does not contribute any of its own funds, the Multiplier is ten. The performance fee is ten times the FCOA.

For example, assuming a FCOA of $10,000:

- The performance fee for a 1:1 contribution of funds is equal to 3 (Multiplier) * $10,000 (FCOA) = $30,000 per case
- The performance fee for a 1:4 contribution of funds is equal to 6 (Multiplier) * $10,000 (FCOA) = $60,000 per case
- The performance fee if the law firm does not contribute funds is equal to 10 (Multiplier) * $10,000 = $100,000 per case

LAW FIRM Funds	CME Funds	Multiplier	performance fee
$1	$1	3	3 * FCOA
$1	$4	6	6 * FCOA
$0	$1	10	10 * FCOA

Distribution of Funds: 50% Reinvestment / 50% Payout

As Lawsuits are paid, the amounts paid are used to pay the Law Firm's contingency fees. Law Firm will then pay Seller the Investment Return. Once Seller's cumulative net cash flow from Investment Returns reaches $1,000,000 in aggregate, for each completed campaign 50% of the funds will be distributed pro-rata to Buyers, and 50% will be redeployed and reinvested to conduct additional campaigns.

For example, assuming cumulative net cash flow from Investment Returns reaches $1,000,000:

- 50% of the funds ($500,000) will be distributed pro-rata to Buyers,
- 50% ($500,000) will be redeployed and reinvested to conduct additional campaigns.

50% Reinvestment Allocation

The 50% reinvestment allocation allows Investors to benefit from the contingency fees and Investment Returns of additional campaigns without the need for additional Certificate of Participation sales, thereby minimizing Seller Certificate of Participation dilution and maximizing ROI for the Buyers.

The Seller will cap the total management fee to 20% of money allocated to each campaign, including campaigns from redeployed funds, consistent with the industry norms.

50% Payout Allocation

Of the 50% of funds from Investment Returns from each campaign distributed pro-rata to Buyers, Seller will not receive any distributions from Investment Returns until 100% of Buyers' initial investment has been returned to Buyer.

Once 100% of the initial investment has been returned to Buyers, the Buyers will receive 50% of the Investment Returns in the form of Pro Rata Distributions, and Seller will retain the remaining 50% of the Investment Returns.

For example, when the "Investment Returns" first reaches $1,000,000, after the $500,000 reinvestment allocation, there is $500,000 remaining for Payout. Assuming an initial Buyer investment of $100,000 :

- 100% of initial Buyer investment is repaid = $100,000
- 50% of remaining $400,000 investment return is distributed to Buyer = $200,000
- Total payout to Buyer is $300,000

When the "Investment Returns" reaches $1,000,000 all subsequent times, the Buyer, and the Seller, split the Pro Rata Distributions evenly until the buyer has been paid (10x) times return on initial investment.

- 50% of Payout Allocation to Buyers = $250,000
- Total payout to buyers is now $550,000

This 50% Reinvestment / 50% Payout process continues until Buyers receive payouts that total 10X times return on their initial investment.

Certificate of Participation Burn

Certificate of Participation shall expire after paying out 1000% (10x) times return on initial investment. Pro Rata Distributions will be made after receipt of funds from Lawsuits. Once the sum total of distributions for a given performance fee equals $10 for every $1 paid for the performance fee, the performance fee will automatically expire, and “burn” and Buyer will no longer be entitled to further Pro Rata Distributions.

It is anticipated and acknowledged that it will take more than one reinvestment/payout investment cycle, if ever, to achieve this return. Therefore, the maximum return an Investor can ever receive is 1000%.

Distribution of Funds: 50% Reinvestment / 50% Payout

As Lawsuits are paid, the amounts paid are used to pay the Law Firm’s contingency fees. Law Firm will then pay Seller the Investment Return. Once Seller’s cumulative net cash flow from Investment Returns reaches $1,000,000 in aggregate, for each completed campaign 50% of the funds will be distributed pro-rata to Buyers, and 50% will be redeployed and reinvested to conduct additional campaigns.

The 50% reinvestment allocation allows Investors to benefit from the contingency fees and Investment Returns of additional campaigns without the need for additional Certificate of Participation sales, thereby minimizing Seller Certificate of Participation dilution and maximizing ROI for the Buyers. The Seller will cap the total management fee to 20% of money allocated to each campaign, including campaigns from redeployed funds, consistent with the industry norms.

50% Payout Allocation

Of the 50% of funds from Investment Returns from each campaign distributed pro-rata to Buyers, Seller will not receive any distributions from Investment Returns until 100% of Buyers’ initial investment has been returned to Buyers. Once 100% of the initial investment has been returned to Buyers, the Buyers will receive 50% of the Investment Returns in the form of Pro Rata Distributions, and Seller will retain the remaining 50% of the Investment Returns.

Certificate of Participation Burn and Buyback

Certificate of Participation shall expire after paying out 1000% (10x) times return on initial investment. Pro Rata Distributions will be made after receipt of funds from Lawsuits. Once the sum total of distributions for a given COP equals $10 for every $1 paid for the COP, the COP will automatically expire, and “burn” and Buyer will no longer be entitled to further Pro Rata Distributions. Therefore, the maximum return an Investor can receive is 1000%.

Restrictions on Transfer

Any Securities sold pursuant to Regulation CF being offered may not be transferred by any Investor of such Securities during the one-year holding period beginning when the Securities were issued, unless such Securities were transferred: 1) to the Company, 2) to an accredited investor, as defined by Rule 501(d) of Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, 3) as part of an Offering registered with the SEC or 4) to a member of the family of the Investor or the equivalent, to a trust controlled by the Investor, to a trust created for the benefit of a family member of the Investor or the equivalent, or in connection with the death or divorce of the Investor or other similar circumstances. "Member of the family" as used herein means a child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, spouse or spousal equivalent, sibling, mother/father/daughter/son/sister/brother-in-law and includes adoptive relationships. Remember that although you may legally be able to transfer the Securities, you may not be able to find another party willing to purchase them.

Other Material Terms

The Company does not have the right to repurchase the Securities.

Please read carefully before signing.

Victory Litigation Fund LP
Attn: Daniel Pittman

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I commit and subscribe to purchase from Victory Litigation Fund I, LP a Delaware Limited Partnership Company (the "Company") "Certificate Of Participation" in the dollar amount set forth below and upon the terms and conditions set forth herein.

I understand that this Subscription Agreement is conditioned upon Company's acceptance of subscriptions. If this Subscription Agreement has been accepted, the Certificate Of Participation subscribed to hereby shall be issued to me in the form of Units.

With respect to such purchase, I hereby represent and warrant to you that:

1 Residence.

I am a bona fide resident of (or, if an entity, the entity is domiciled in) the state set forth on my signature page.

2 Subscription.

a. I hereby subscribe to purchase the number of Certificate Of Participation set forth below, and to make capital contributions to the Company in the amounts set forth below, representing the purchase price for the Certificate Of Participation subscribed.

Principal Amount of Certificate Of Participation⁽¹⁾

b. I acknowledge that this subscription is contingent upon acceptance by the Company, and that the Company has the right to accept or reject subscriptions in whole or in part.

3 Representations of Investor

In connection with the sale of the Certificate Of Participation to me, I hereby acknowledge and represent to the Company as follows: I hereby acknowledge receipt of a copy of the FORM-C/A, dated on or about March 6, 2024 (the "Memorandum") relating to the offering of the Equity.

- a. I have carefully read the Memorandum, including the section entitled "Risks Factors" and have relied solely upon the Memorandum and investigations made by me or my representatives in making the decision to invest in the Company. I have not relied on any other statement or printed material given or made by any person associated with the offering of the Certificate Of Participation.
- b. I have been given access to full and complete information regarding the Company (including the opportunity to meet with the CEO of the Company and review all the documents described in the Memorandum and such other documents as I may have requested in writing) and have utilized such access to my satisfaction for the purpose of obtaining information in addition to, or verifying information included in, the Memorandum.
- c. I am experienced and knowledgeable in financial and business matters, capable of evaluating the merits and risks of investing in the Certificate Of Participation, and do not need or desire the assistance of a knowledgeable representative to aid in the evaluation of such risks (or, in the alternative, I have used a knowledgeable representative in connection with my decision to purchase the Certificate Of Participation).
- d. I understand that an investment in the Certificate Of Participation is highly speculative and involves a high degree of risk. I believe the investment is suitable for me based on my investment objectives and financial needs. I have adequate means for providing for my current financial needs and personal contingencies and have no need for liquidity of investment with respect to the Certificate Of Participation. I can bear the economic risk of an investment in the Certificate Of Participation for an indefinite period of time and can afford a complete loss of such investment.
- e. I understand that there may be no market for the Certificate Of Participation, that there are significant restrictions on the transferability of the Certificate Of Participation and that for these and other reasons, I may not be able to liquidate an investment in the Certificate Of Participation for an indefinite period of time.
- f. I have been advised that the Certificate Of Participation have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("Securities Act"), or under applicable state securities laws ("State Laws"), and are offered pursuant to exemptions from registration under the Securities Act and the State Laws. I understand that the Company's reliance on such exemptions is predicated in part on my representations to the Company contained herein.
- g. I understand that I am not entitled to cancel, terminate or revoke this subscription, my capital commitment or any agreements hereunder and that the subscription and agreements shall survive my death, incapacity, bankruptcy, dissolution or termination.
- h. I understand that capital contributions to the Company will not be returned after they are paid.

. In Rescuer Intent; Restrictions on Transfer of Securities.

- a. I understand that (i) there may be no market for the Certificate Of Participation, (ii) the purchase of the Certificate Of Participation is a long-term investment, (iii) the transferability of the Certificate Of Participation is restricted, (iv) the Certificate Of Participation may be sold by me only pursuant to registration under the Securities Act and State Laws, or an opinion of counsel that such registration is not required, and (v) the Company does not have any obligation to register the Certificate Of Participation.
- b. I represent and warrant that I am purchasing the Certificate Of Participation for my own account, for long term investment, and without the intention of reselling or redistributing the Certificate Of Participation. The Certificate Of Participation are being purchased by me in my name solely for my own beneficial interest and not as nominee for, on behalf of, for the beneficial interest of, or with the intention to transfer to, any other person, trust, or organization, and I have made no agreement with others regarding any of the Certificate Of Participation. My financial condition is such that it is not likely that it will be necessary for me to dispose of any of the Certificate Of Participation in the foreseeable future.
- c. I am aware that, in the view of the Securities and Exchange Commission, a purchase of securities with an intent to resell by reason of any foreseeable specific contingency or anticipated change in market values, or any change in the condition of the Company or its business, or in connection with a contemplated liquidation or settlement of any loan obtained for the acquisition of any of the Certificate Of Participation and for which the Certificate Of Participation were or may be pledged as security would represent an intent inconsistent with the investment representations set forth above.
- d. I understand that any sale, transfer, pledge or other disposition of the Certificate Of Participation by me (i) may require the consent of the CEO of the Company, (ii) will require conformity with the restrictions contained in this Section 4, and (iii) may be further restricted by a legend placed on the instruments or certificate(s) representing the securities containing substantially the following language:

"The securities represented by this certificate have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or applicable state securities laws and may not be sold, offered for sale, or transferred except pursuant to either an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and under the applicable state securities laws, or an opinion of counsel for the Company that such transaction is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and under the applicable state securities laws. The transfer or encumbrance of the securities represented by this certificate is subject to substantial restrictions."

5 Additional Representations of Investor.

In connection with the sale of the Units to me, I further represent and warrant to the Company as follows:

- a. Individual Investor Only. I am of legal age in my state of residence and have legal capacity to execute, deliver and perform my obligations under this Subscription Agreement and the Units. The undersigned have obtained all appropriate and necessary background information regarding its officers, directors and beneficial owners to enable the undersigned to comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations respecting anti-money laundering activities.
- d. I did not derive any payment to the Company from, or related to, any activity that is deemed criminal under United States law.
- e. I understand that the Company is relying on the accuracy of the statements contained in this Subscription Agreement in connection with the sale of the Units to me, and the Units would not be sold to me if any part of this Subscription Agreement were untrue. VICTORY LITIGATION FUND I

CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

This Certificate of Participation Agreement (this "Agreement") is entered into on or about _____ by and among Victory Litigation Fund I, a Delaware Limited Partnership (the "Seller") and each of the buyers who execute a signature page hereto (each, a "Buyer") for the respective amounts set forth thereon (the "Purchase Price").

WHEREAS, the Seller will originate claims as described in the Seller's Form C (the "Claims");

WHEREAS, Seller has engaged or will engage law firms (together with any successor or supplementary counsel, "Law Firm") to litigate these Claims, including any refile, counterclaim, appeal, settlement, enforcement action, arbitration, or other action or process related to the thereto (collectively, the "Lawsuits") in exchange for the Contingency Fee and reimbursement of Law Firm's unpaid Claims Expenses;

WHEREAS, the purpose of Seller's entry into the Agreement and the related Master Services Agreement to Law Firm attached as Exhibit A (the "MSA") is to provide funding in an aggregate amount of up to $5,000,000 (the "Offering") before payment of fees and commissions incurred in connection with the Offering, to Seller for certain operating and other expenses related to the Lawsuits and the Offering;

WHEREAS, each of the Buyers wish to invest the Purchase Price to fund the Issuer's business, facilitate the prosecution of Claims originated by said Purchase Price, and to participate in the Litigation Proceeds (as defined below) if the Claims are successful to receive the Investment Returns set forth on Schedule I attached hereto; and

WHEREAS, each of the Buyers acknowledges and agrees that its financing of the Purchase Price is nonrecourse and the rights to Litigation Proceeds purchased hereunder (i) shall be of no value if there are no Proceeds received from the Final Determination of the Lawsuits unless otherwise provided herein and further (ii) shall be of no value, or the value will be reduced, if Proceeds received from the Final Determination of the Lawsuits are insufficient to repay Buyers in full or at all subsequent to payment of Law Firm's Contingency Fee and reimbursement of Law Firm's unpaid Claims Expenses.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, each of the Buyers and the Seller, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. The following capitalized terms shall have the following meanings:

"Award" means the total monetary amount owed to the Seller on account of or as a direct or indirect result of the Claims, whether by negotiation, arbitration, mediation, lawsuit, judgment, settlement, or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, "Award" includes both cash and the monetary value of non-cash assets at the time the Award is paid, and it excludes the value of injunctive, declaratory, or other non-monetary relief.

"Certificate of Participation" ("COP") is a financial instrument, issued by the Seller, which grants the Buyer a fractional interest in the Seller's litigation proceeds as delineated in the accompanying Certificate Schedule I. This fractional interest aligns with the concept of a revenue share, entitling the Holder to a proportionate distribution of the proceeds obtained through the Seller's legal successes.

- (i) Repayment of the COP is discussed in its own section and may be negatively impacted by a successful motion to dismiss.
- (ii) The COP may employ traditional securityholder record keeping methods and/or may have its shareholder records maintained in a distributed ledger format consistent with traditional record keeping standards.
- (iii) The COP may be subject to transfer restrictions, limiting the ability of the holder to assign or sell the instrument to third parties without prior consent or compliance with applicable financial securities regulations.

"Claims Expenses" means the sum of all fees, costs and expenses (including and any other professional fees and expenses, whether for attorneys, advisors, experts, or witnesses; and procedural fees relating to court, arbitration, or other process, including filing and arbitrator fees; provided that the amounts in each case are approved by Law Firm) incurred or accrued by the Seller in prosecuting, defending and/or settling the Lawsuits.

"Closing Date" means the final closing date of the Offering as determined by Section 4(a)(6).

"Contingency Fee" means the following tiered contingency fee the Seller has agreed to pay the Law Firm in the event that there is a monetary recovery from the Lawsuits, which Contingency Fee, as defined in the MSA, together with Law Firm's unpaid Claims Expenses, will be payable before the Investment Return.

“Depo-it Account” means the Law Firm’s trust account where the Purchase Price payable under the Agreements will be deposited.

“Entity” means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, estate, trust, business trust, governmental authority, fund, investment account, or other person or entity.

“Final Determination” means the final resolution of the Lawsuits, whether by settlement, the entry of a non-appealable final judgment against the Seller, or the enforcement of a final, non-appealable judgment in favor of the Seller.

“Fund Administrator” means the individual or entity appointed by the Seller and designated in Exhibit C.

“Holdback Period” means the period commencing as of the date the Litigation Proceeds are received in the Proceeds Account (the “Receipt of Proceeds”) up to and until the expiration of the Litigation Proceeds Claims Period, or, if earlier, such time as Seller’s obligations to the Buyers have been satisfied in full.

“Indebtedness” means, without duplication, all items that constitute (a) indebtedness for borrowed money or the deferred purchase price of property (other than trade payables incurred in the ordinary course of business); (b) obligations arising under letter of credit facilities, bonds, notes or other instruments; (c) all liabilities secured by any encumbrance on any of Seller’s property (other than mechanics’, repairmen’s or other like non-consensual statutory encumbrances arising in the ordinary course of business with respect to obligations that are not past due); and/or (d) all guarantees or other liabilities with respect to any indebtedness of any other Entity.

“Investment Return” means Seller’s right to Litigation Proceeds set forth in Schedule I.

3. Issuance of COPs. Within 60 days of the Closing Date, Seller shall cause the purchased COPs to be sent to the Buyers. Buyers will receive an COP for every dollar of Purchase Price. For example, if the Purchase Price is $100, the Buyer will receive 100 COPs.
4. Payment of Investment Return. Seller agrees to pay each Buyer (or their respective Transferees) the Investment Return on the Transferred Interest set forth on Schedule I hereto (“Investment Return”) in accordance with and subject to the limitations set forth herein, including without limitation, Section 5(a) below. The payment of the Investment Return shall be facilitated by the distribution and use of COPs and the Investment Return shall be paid if and only if (i) any Litigation Proceeds are allocated and distributed and (ii) the Buyer or its security holder follows the Claims Procedures. Buyers understand and acknowledge that not every case originated by Seller and Law Firm will proceed past the Motion to Dismiss Milestone, and that not every case originated will result in an Investment Return for Buyers.
 - a. In the event there is a recovery of Litigation Proceeds such that the Buyers are entitled to the Investment Return, the Seller will direct Law Firm to pay the Investment Return to each Buyer or its security holder.

- b. The Fund Administrator shall receive and hold, on behalf of Seller, all Litigation Proceeds. The Fund Administrator shall account for all Litigation Proceeds, and cause to be distributed to Seller the management fee as defined in Schedule I and Pro Rata Distribution to Buyer.
 - i. As soon as reasonably practicable after the receipt of Litigation Proceeds, the Fund Administrator shall, at the expense of Seller, cause to be prepared a balance sheet of the Seller and a related statement of income, loss, change in financial of the Seller, Investment Returns, and Pro Rata Distributions to Buyer.
 - ii. Upon reasonable notice from Buyer and for any purpose reasonably related to such Buyer's interest, the Fund Administrator shall afford Buyer and Buyer's representatives' access during normal business hours to the organizational, financial, and similar records, reports, and documents of the Seller and shall permit Buyer and such Buyer's representatives to examine such documents and make copies thereof at such Buyer's cost and expense.

In the event payment is due pursuant to Section 5(a) prior to the issuance of the COPs pursuant to Section 4, Seller shall, via the Fund Administrator, make prompt issuance of the COPs provided that if the Seller fails to do so within thirty (30) days of an executed settlement agreement, dismissal of the Lawsuits, or recovery of Litigation Proceeds, as applicable, the Seller will use commercially reasonable efforts to make these payments to holders of this instrument by establishing an online process for holders to submit claims for payment. Individuals will be able to submit claims for payment in accordance with instructions to be provided by the Seller.

5. Representations and Agreements by Seller. The Seller represents, warrants, agrees and covenants to the Buyers that:

- a. This Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding agreement of the Seller enforceable against it in accordance with its terms.
- b. Seller is the sole and beneficial owner of, and has good title to, the claims and all rights to Litigation Proceeds.
- c. The Seller covenants and agrees to cooperate in the prosecution of the Claims. Specifically, the Seller will cause its managers, officers, executives, and employees to promptly and fully assist the Law Firm as reasonably necessary to conduct and conclude the Lawsuits. For the avoidance of doubt, such assistance includes all actions any plaintiff may reasonably expect undertaking such as submitting to examination; verifying statements under oath; and appearing at any proceedings. The examples in the preceding sentence are illustrative and do not limit the Seller's duty to cooperate in any way.

- d. The Seller shall use its best efforts to preserve the rights of the Buyer's hereunder, including their rights to Litigation Proceeds and agrees during the term of this Agreement to use reasonable efforts to refrain from knowingly (i) engaging in any acts or omissions that would have a materially adverse impact on the Lawsuits, the Claim, or an COP holder's rights to the Investment Return or (ii) granting any person or Entity a future interest in the Claim, Lawsuits or Litigation Proceeds that is senior or pari passu to the claims of the Buyers to Litigation Proceeds under the Agreements.
- e. The Seller will refrain from making any attempts to revoke or cause to be revoked MSA and will assist the Law Firm as may be necessary or desired to ensure that each COP holder receives their Investment Return within 90 days of Law Firm's receipt of Litigation Proceeds in the Deposit Account. In the event the Investment Return is not sent to a holder of COPs who is entitled to such payment on or before the 90-day period described above, the Buyer shall be entitled to interest at the "Prime Rate" of interest adjusted as of the first day of each calendar month and as determined by reference to the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC).
- f. The Seller is a limited partnership in good standing under the laws of the state of its formation, and has the power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and carry on its business as now conducted.
- g. The execution, delivery and performance by the Seller of this instrument is within the power of the Seller and has been duly authorized by all necessary actions on the part of the Seller. This instrument constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Seller, enforceable against the Seller in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity. To the knowledge of the Seller, it is not in violation of (i) its current charter or bylaws or applicable constituent documents; (ii) any material statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Seller; or (iii) any material indenture or contract to which the Seller is a party or by which it is bound, where, in each case, such violation or default, individually, or together with all such violations or defaults, could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Seller.
- h. The performance and consummation of the transactions contemplated by this instrument do not and will not: (i) violate any material judgment, statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Seller; (ii) result in the acceleration of any material indenture or contract to which the Seller is a party or by which it is bound; or (iii) result in the creation or imposition of any lien upon any property, asset or revenue of the Seller or the suspension, forfeiture, or nonrenewal of any material permit, license or authorization applicable to the Seller, its business or operations.

- i. No consents or approvals are required in connection with the performance of this instrument, other than any qualifications or filings under applicable securities laws and approvals of Seller that have been received as of the date hereof.
- j. As of the date hereof, there are no bankruptcy proceedings outstanding or written notice of potential proceedings against Seller. In the event the Seller commences, or has commenced against it, any case or other proceeding pursuant to any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law, Seller shall use reasonable efforts to cause the Investment Return to be described as an asset of Buyer in any oral or written communications, including any document filed in connection therewith.
- k. All filed and unsealed pleadings in the Lawsuits are accessible through the federal courts' PACER service (<https://pacer.uscourts.gov/>) or comparable State court portal in the jurisdictions the Lawsuits are filed.

6. Representations by Buyers. Each Buyer represents to the Seller as follows:

- a. The Buyer has full legal capacity, power and authority to execute and deliver this instrument and to perform its obligations hereunder. This instrument constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Buyer, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except as limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity.
- b. The Buyer acknowledges, and is entering into this instrument in compliance with, the investment limitations set forth in Rule 100(a)(2) of Regulation CF, promulgated under Section 4(a)(6)(B) of the Securities Act.
- c. In deciding to purchase this instrument, the Buyer is not relying on the advice or recommendations of the Seller and the Buyer has made its own independent decision that the purchase of this instrument is suitable and appropriate for the Buyer. The Buyer understands that no federal or state agency has passed upon the merits or risks in this instrument or made any finding or determination concerning the fairness or advisability of this purchase.
- d. The Buyer understands that the Law Firm's claim to the Contingency Fee and reimbursement of Claims Expenses is senior to, and payable in advance of, the payment of Litigation Proceeds and the Buyer receiving any portion of the Investment Return.
- e. The Buyer understands and acknowledges that this Agreement does not transfer to the Buyer control over the Lawsuits, any right to require the Seller continue the Lawsuits or to pursue the Claims, or any approval or veto rights over any proposed settlement. Seller shall at all times remain wholly in control of the Lawsuits and resolution thereof.
- f. The Buyer is paying the Purchase Price consideration for the Investment Return on a non-recourse basis. In the event a Final Determination fails to result in a recovery of Litigation Proceeds, Seller shall have no further obligations hereunder, including to make any payment to Buyer for any portion of the Purchase Price. In the event Litigation Proceeds are insufficient to pay Buyers in full, including after the payment of Claims Expenses, after the payment of Buyer's Pro Rata Distributions, Seller shall have no further obligations hereunder.
- g. The Buyer understands that the information disclosed in connection with litigation financing is complex, nuanced, and oftentimes more detailed than the information disclosed in connection with prospective investments in most asset classes, such as investments in corporate entities that disclose financial statements and discuss their business models in public disclosures. Depending on the time of investment, hundreds of pages of documentation from the plaintiff, defendant, and the court may be available on the public docket. Investors should carefully review such documentation prior to investing, and investors should understand who is writing each such document when reviewing them. For example, documents drafted by plaintiffs and defendants are primarily written from a position of advocacy. Lawyers write these documents with the goal of zealously advocating for their respective clients rather than informing a potential investor.

Standards employed by the court at different stages of litigation do not represent a fair indication as to whether a plaintiff will ultimately be successful on the merits of a claim if litigated through trial. A court uses different criteria to determine whether a claim survives a motion to dismiss, a motion for summary judgment, or similar motions made under applicable state law, as compared to how a court will rule or instruct a jury at trial. The varying nature of these standards should be understood by investors.

The Buyer understands that these are only a few of the many complexities of the American legal system and with investing in litigations, in general, and does not cover all such risks and complexities therein.

- h. The Buyer understands that the amount of damages claimed in the Lawsuits may be aggressively contested by the parties and the Buyer represents that there may be significant variance in the amount of damages claimed by a party and the amount of damages ultimately awarded by a court or jury. Moreover, the Lawsuits may settle for amounts significantly lower than the amounts claimed and the Buyer understands that he or she should factor that in when assessing this Agreement.
- i. The Buyer understands that no public market now exists for any of the securities issued by the Seller, and that the Seller has made no assurances that a public market will ever exist for this instrument and any assets used to satisfy the obligations hereunder.
- j. If the Buyer is not a United States person (as defined by Section 7701(a)(30) of the IRC), the Buyer hereby represents that it has satisfied itself as to the full observance of the laws of its jurisdiction in connection with any offer or sale of this instrument, including (a) the legal requirements within its jurisdiction for the purchase of this instrument; (b) any foreign exchange restrictions applicable to such purchase; (c) any governmental or other consents that may need to be obtained; and (d) the income tax and other tax consequences, if any, that may be relevant to the purchase, holding, conversion, redemption, sale, or transfer of this instrument. The Buyer acknowledges that the Seller has taken no action in foreign jurisdictions with respect to this instrument.

- k. The Buyer understands that this instrument is being offered in a regulation crowdfunding offering with other Agreements, and all participants in the aforementioned offering, together, "Buyers," will have the same rights and obligations.

7. Arbitration, Law & Jurisdiction. Except as it relates to the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"), the Investment Documents and any related claims shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to any conflict of laws provisions thereof. Any dispute, claim, or controversy arising out of, or relating to, the Investment Documents, or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation or validity thereof, including this provision to arbitrate, shall be settled by binding arbitration in the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Service ("JAMS"). The arbitration shall be conducted pursuant to the FAA and the JAMS Commercial Arbitration Rules in effect at the time of the arbitration. The tribunal shall consist of one arbitrator that the Parties will seek to agree on within fourteen (14) days of the request for arbitration and if no such agreement is reached JAMS shall appoint such arbitrator within seven (7) days thereafter. Each Party shall pay its own expenses in such arbitration, including attorneys' fees. An arbitration award may be confirmed in any jurisdiction in which a party is subject to personal jurisdiction or otherwise possesses assets. Nothing in this provision shall prevent either Party from obtaining preliminary injunctive relief in court if necessary to prevent irreparable harm pending the conclusion of any arbitration in accordance with this Section 8; for such actions, the Parties hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of any state or federal court located within the County of San Diego and State of California and agree that all such actions shall be litigated in such courts waiving any defense of forum non conveniens and any right to jury trial. An arbitration award may be confirmed in any jurisdiction in which a party is subject to personal jurisdiction or otherwise possesses assets.

8. Successors and Assigns. Seller shall not assign any of its rights or obligations under the Investment Documents or the Litigation Proceeds. Buyer may assign or otherwise transfer all or any of its rights and obligations under the Agreement; provided that no such assignment shall be made to any defendant in the Lawsuits or to another Person which would materially and adversely affect the Claims. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall be binding and inure to the benefit of Seller and Buyer and their respective heirs, executors, personal representatives, administrators, successors and permitted assigns.

9. Conduct of the Litigation. Buyer shall not provide legal advice of any kind to Seller. All legal services that might prove necessary shall be the sole responsibility of the Law Firm or other attorney(s) retained and authorized by Seller to represent Seller. Buyer further acknowledges that it shall issue no instructions of any kind to Law Firm or to any other attorneys retained and authorized by the Seller or otherwise exercise any influence or control over the Law Firm or such attorneys with respect to the representation of the Seller or the conduct of the Lawsuits. By virtue of entering into this Agreement, Buyer does not become a party to the Lawsuits or become a client of the Law Firm. Seller retains the unrestricted right to settle the Lawsuits at any time in good faith without the approval of the Buyers.

10. Relationship between Seller and Buyer; Income Tax Treatment. The relationship of the Parties shall be that of seller and buyer, and neither Party shall be considered or act as an agent of or have any fiduciary duties to the other Party. The Agreement not intended to create a joint venture, partnership or association between the Parties. The Parties intend that the transactions set forth in this Agreement shall be treated for income tax purposes as a prepaid forward contract and not as indebtedness, and each Party agrees to report these transactions on its income tax returns in a manner consistent with such intention and to pay any applicable taxes in a similar fashion. This Agreement creates rights and obligations on the part of each of the Parties. The Parties intend that any rights or obligations created as a consequence of this Agreement shall terminate (within the meaning of Section 1234A of the IRC) upon Buyer's receipt of the full Investment Return pursuant to this Agreement. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the payment of the Investment Return shall be treated as the disposition of any assets created or transferred to Buyer as a result of this Agreement.

11. Miscellaneous

- a. Each Buyer hereby agrees that, if any amendment, waiver or modification of this Agreement is (A) approved by the written consents required for such amendment, waiver or modification under the preceding clause "(a)" (i.e., approved by the written consent of the Seller and the holders of a majority of the amount of Purchase Price paid), each Buyer shall promptly (and in any event within thirty days of the Seller's written request (accompanied by the relevant written consent of other Buyers)) execute and deliver to the Seller such amendment or a written agreement setting forth such waiver or modification.
- b. Each Buyer hereby constitutes and appoints as the proxies of such Buyer, and hereby grants a power of attorney to: (A) the Law Firm, and (B) the directors and officers of the Seller, and each of them, with full power and substitution, to execute any amendment, modification or waiver the Buyer is required to execute pursuant to the preceding clause "(a)(i)" and fails to deliver within the period of time required by the preceding clause "(a)(i)". Each of the proxy and power of attorney granted in this clause "(a)(i)" is being given in consideration of the agreements and covenants of the parties in connection with the transactions contemplated by this instrument and, as such, each is coupled with an interest, secures the proprietary interest of such donee and the performance of obligations owed to such donee and shall be irrevocable until this instrument terminates pursuant to its terms or is amended to remove or terminate the proxy and power of attorney. Each Buyer hereby revokes any and all previous proxies or powers of attorney with respect to the matters contemplated herein that may conflict or be inconsistent with the foregoing provisions and shall not hereafter, until this instrument terminates pursuant to its terms or is amended to remove or terminate the proxy and power of attorney, grant, or purport to grant, any other proxy or power of attorney which may conflict or be inconsistent with the foregoing provisions.

- c. Upon the Final Determination, if no Litigation Proceeds are payable in connection therewith, this Agreement shall automatically terminate and be of no further force or effect.
- d. Seller shall not be liable or responsible to the Buyers, nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement, in each case, for any failure or delay in fulfilling or performing Section 4(a), 5, or 6(f) of this Purchase Agreement, if and to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by, or results from, acts beyond the affected party's reasonable control, including, without limitation: (a) acts of God; (b) flood, fire, earthquake or explosion; (c) war, invasion, hostilities (whether war is declared or not), terrorist threats or acts, or other civil unrest; (d) applicable law or regulations; (e) action by any Governmental Authority; or (f) technological changes or malfunctions (including changes imposed by platforms or networks on which applications related to the COPs and the Escrow Agent network would be made available).
- e. The financial security may be subject to transfer restrictions, limiting the ability of the holder to assign or sell the instrument to third parties without prior consent or compliance with applicable financial securities regulations. Seller hereby acknowledges and consents to all terms set forth in this Agreement and hereby waives its right to raise any objection thereto and consents to any transfer restrictions Seller deems necessary to comply with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations. In connection herewith, Seller will execute and deliver to Buyers an assignment of the Transferred Interest.
- f. In the event any one or more of the terms or provisions of this instrument is for any reason held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, in whole or in part or in any respect, or in the event that any one or more of the terms or provisions of this instrument operate or would prospectively operate to invalidate this instrument, then such term(s) or provision(s) only will be deemed null and void and will not affect any other term or provision of this instrument and the remaining terms and provisions of this instrument will remain operative and in full force and effect and will not be affected, prejudiced, or disturbed thereby.

SCHEDULE I

Performance Fee

LAW FIRM agrees to pay CME a fixed performance fee per case for completing specific services outlined in the Management Services Agreement ("MSA").

Pursuant to this Agreement, LAW FIRM agrees to pay a per-case performance fee to CME. The performance fee specific to each underlying case is payable within 30 days of when the LAW FIRM receives its legal fee on that particular case.

Investment Return

The Investment Return is calculated by multiplying the Final Cost of Acquisition ("FCOA") by a contractually agreed-upon multiplier of 10. For every Lawsuit originated by Seller, Law Firm will pay $10 for every $1 Seller expended in originating the Lawsuit.

The FCOA is calculated by taking the total funds spent during an advertising campaign to originate cases divided by the final number of cases filed with the court.

Final Cost of Acquisition

Calculation

For example, if $100,000 is the total amount of funds spent during an advertising campaign, and 10 cases are filed with the court, the FCOA is $10,000 per case ($$100,000 / 10$).

The FCOA figure is used to determine the performance fee (as outlined in the following sections).

Performance Fee Calculation

Methodology

The performance fee is calculated by multiplying the FCOA by a contractually agreed upon Multiplier ("Multiplier"). Thus, the per case performance fee = FCOA * Multiplier.

The Multiplier is determined based on the amount of capital contributed by a law firm in proportion to the amount of funds contributed by the CME, as follows:

- 1) If LAW FIRM contributes $1 for every $1 provided by CME, the Multiplier is three. The performance fee is three times the FCOA.
- 2) If LAW FIRM contributes $1 for every $4 provided by CME, the Multiplier is six. The performance fee is six times the FCOA.
- 3) If LAW FIRM does not contribute any of its own funds, the Multiplier is ten. The performance fee is ten times the FCOA.

For example, assuming a FCOA of $10,000:

- The performance fee for a 1:1 contribution of funds is equal to 3 (Multiplier) * $10,000 (FCOA) = $30,000 per case
- The performance fee for a 1:4 contribution of funds is equal to 6 (Multiplier) * $10,000 (FCOA) = $60,000 per case
- The performance fee if the law firm does not contribute funds is equal to 10 (Multiplier) * $10,000 = $100,000 per case

LAW FIRM Funds	CME Funds	Multiplier	performance fee
$1	$1	3	3 * FCOA
$1	$4	6	6 * FCOA
$0	$1	10	10 * FCOA

Distribution of Funds: 50% Reinvestment / 50% Payout

As Lawsuits are paid, the amounts paid are used to pay the Law Firm's contingency fees. Law Firm will then pay Seller the Investment Return. Once Seller's cumulative net cash flow from Investment Returns reaches $1,000,000 in aggregate, for each completed campaign 50% of the funds will be distributed pro-rata to Buyers, and 50% will be redeployed and reinvested to conduct additional campaigns.

For example, assuming cumulative net cash flow from Investment Returns reaches $1,000,000:

- 50% of the funds ($500,000) will be distributed pro-rata to Buyers,
- 50% ($500,000) will be redeployed and reinvested to conduct additional campaigns.

50% Reinvestment Allocation

The 50% reinvestment allocation allows Investors to benefit from the contingency fees and Investment Returns of additional campaigns without the need for additional Certificate of Participation sales, thereby minimizing Seller Certificate of Participation dilution and maximizing ROI for the Buyers.

The Seller will cap the total management fee to 20% of money allocated to each campaign, including campaigns from redeployed funds, consistent with the industry norms.

50% Payout Allocation

Of the 50% of funds from Investment Returns from each campaign distributed pro-rata to Buyers, Seller will not receive any distributions from Investment Returns until 100% of Buyers' initial investment has been returned to Buyer.

Once 100% of the initial investment has been returned to Buyers, the Buyers will receive 50% of the Investment Returns in the form of Pro Rata Distributions, and Seller will retain the remaining 50% of the Investment Returns.

For example, when the "Investment Returns" first reaches $1,000,000, after the $500,000 reinvestment allocation, there is $500,000 remaining for Payout. Assuming an initial Buyer investment of $100,000 :

- 100% of initial Buyer investment is repaid = $100,000
- 50% of remaining $400,000 investment return is distributed to Buyer = $200,000
- Total payout to Buyer is $300,000

When the "Investment Returns" reaches $1,000,000 all subsequent times, the Buyer, and the Seller, split the Pro Rata Distributions evenly until the buyer has been paid (10x) times return on initial investment.

- 50% of Payout Allocation to Buyers = $250,000
- Total payout to buyers is now $550,000

This 50% Reinvestment / 50% Payout process continues until Buyers receive payouts that total 10X times return on their initial investment.

Certificate of Participation Burn

Certificate of Participation shall expire after paying out 1000% (10x) times return on initial investment. Pro Rata Distributions will be made after receipt of funds from Lawsuits. Once the sum total of distributions for a given performance fee equals $10 for every $1 paid for the performance fee, the performance fee will automatically expire, and "burn" and Buyer will no longer be entitled to further Pro Rata Distributions.

It is anticipated and acknowledged that it will take more than one reinvestment/payout investment cycle, if ever, to achieve this return. Therefore, the maximum return an Investor can ever receive is 1000%.

SCHEDULE A: DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES AND PAYMENT

Performance Fee

LAW FIRM agrees to pay CME a fixed performance fee per case for completing specific services outlined in the Management Services Agreement ("MSA").

Pursuant to this Agreement, LAW FIRM agrees to pay a per-case performance fee to CME. The performance fee specific to each underlying case is payable within 30 days of when the LAW FIRM receives its legal fee on that particular case.

Investment Return

The Investment Return is calculated by multiplying the Final Cost of Acquisition ("FCOA") by a contractually agreed-upon multiplier of 10. For every Lawsuit originated by Seller, Law Firm will pay $10 for every $1 Seller expended in originating the Lawsuit.

The FCOA is calculated by taking the total funds spent during an advertising campaign to originate cases divided by the final number of cases filed with the court.

Final Cost of Acquisition Calculation

For example, if $100,000 is the total amount of funds spent during an advertising campaign, and 10 cases are filed with the court, the FCOA is $10,000 per case ($100,000 / 10).

The FCOA figure is used to determine the performance fee (as outlined in the following sections).

Performance Fee Calculation

Methodology

The performance fee is calculated by multiplying the FCOA by a contractually agreed upon Multiplier ("Multiplier"). Thus, the per case performance fee = FCOA * Multiplier.

The Multiplier is determined based on the amount of capital contributed by a law firm in proportion to the amount of funds contributed by the CME, as follows:

- 4) If LAW FIRM contributes $1 for every $1 provided by CME, the Multiplier is three. The performance fee is three times the FCOA.
- 5) If LAW FIRM contributes $1 for every $4 provided by CME, the Multiplier is six. The performance fee is six times the FCOA.

- 6) If LAW FIRM does not contribute any of its own funds, the Multiplier is ten. The performance fee is ten times the FCOA.

For example, assuming a FCOA of $10,000:

- The performance fee for a 1:1 contribution of funds is equal to 3 (Multiplier) * $10,000 (FCOA) = $30,000 per case
- The performance fee for a 1:4 contribution of funds is equal to 6 (Multiplier) * $10,000 (FCOA) = $60,000 per case
- The performance fee if the law firm does not contribute funds is equal to 10 (Multiplier) * $10,000 = $100,000 per case

LAW FIRM Funds	CME Funds	Multiplier	performance fee
$1	$1	3	3 * FCOA
$1	$4	6	6 * FCOA
$0	$1	10	10 * FCOA

Distribution of Funds: 50% Reinvestment / 50% Payout

As Lawsuits are paid, the amounts paid are used to pay the Law Firm's contingency fees. Law Firm will then pay Seller the Investment Return. Once Seller's cumulative net cash flow from Investment Returns reaches $1,000,000 in aggregate, for each completed campaign 50% of the funds will be distributed pro-rata to Buyers, and 50% will be redeployed and reinvested to conduct additional campaigns.

For example, assuming cumulative net cash flow from Investment Returns reaches $1,000,000:

- 50% of the funds ($500,000) will be distributed pro-rata to Buyers,
- 50% ($500,000) will be redeployed and reinvested to conduct additional campaigns.

50% Reinvestment Allocation

The 50% reinvestment allocation allows Investors to benefit from the contingency fees and Investment Returns of additional campaigns without the need for additional Certificate of Participation sales, thereby minimizing Seller Certificate of Participation dilution and maximizing ROI for the Buyers.

The Seller will cap the total management fee to 20% of money allocated to each campaign, including campaigns from redeployed funds, consistent with the industry norms.

50% Payout Allocation

Of the 50% of funds from Investment Returns from each campaign distributed pro-rata to Buyers, Seller will not receive any distributions from Investment Returns until 100% of Buyers' initial investment has been returned to Buyer.

Once 100% of the initial investment has been returned to Buyers, the Buyers will receive 50% of the Investment Returns in the form of Pro Rata Distributions, and Seller will retain the remaining 50% of the Investment Returns.

For example, when the "Investment Returns" first reaches $1,000,000, after the $500,000 reinvestment allocation, there is $500,000 remaining for Payout. Assuming an initial Buyer investment of $100,000 :

- 100% of initial Buyer investment is repaid = $100,000
- 50% of remaining $400,000 investment return is distributed to Buyer = $200,000
- Total payout to Buyer is $300,000

When the "Investment Returns" reaches $1,000,000 all subsequent times, the Buyer, and the Seller, split the Pro Rata Distributions evenly until the buyer has been paid (10x) times return on initial investment.

- 50% of Payout Allocation to Buyers = $250,000
- Total payout to buyers is now $550,000

This 50% Reinvestment / 50% Payout process continues until Buyers receive payouts that total 10X times return on their initial investment.

Certificate of Participation Burn

Certificate of Participation shall expire after paying out 1000% (10x) times return on initial investment. Pro Rata Distributions will be made after receipt of funds from Lawsuits. Once the sum total of distributions for a given performance fee equals $10 for every $1 paid for the performance fee, the performance fee will automatically expire, and "burn" and Buyer will no longer be entitled to further Pro Rata Distributions.

It is anticipated and acknowledged that it will take more than one reinvestment/payout investment cycle, if ever, to achieve this return. Therefore, the maximum return an Investor can ever receive is 1000%.

Video Transcription

Hello, my name is Ron Lasorsa, and I am the managing general partner of the Victory Litigation Fund. To conduct an unregistered securities offering, must accurately disclose all material information that might affect a potential investor's decision to work with me and the Victory Litigation Fund. So, with this video, I am officially disclosing that until recently I was bound by a non-disclosure agreement with a former business partner who is now a prominent attorney.

That non-disclosure agreement restricted what I could say about our previous business venture which originated over half a billion dollars in legal fees on behalf of that prominent attorney. While originating those cases, I learned of acts believed were morally and ethically wrong and when I raised objections I was cut out of the deal. Afterwards, walked away from the industry for over three years because I was so disgusted. But once I heard about the Camp Lejeune Justice Act litigation, I knew I had to do something.

I knew that lawyers like my former business partner would try to exploit those veterans, so, I risked a significant monetary judgment against myself, to tell the truth because I thought it was the right thing to do. Unfortunately, I took that risk and lost, so now I must pay that former business partner over six hundred thousand dollars because he continues to demand that I remain absolutely silent on our business dealings.

But that's never going to happen, so I have provided all the details of our dispute in my affidavit with supporting documentation on this website. To be clear, this was a fight I started on my own because I thought it was the right thing to do and the financial hit, I took is a personal liability and in no way implicate the Fund. Once you review the materials, you will see that this tactic was necessary. Because this is now a mandatory SEC disclosure item, I can show you my track record and that I am not afraid to fight against those who exploit the weakest and most vulnerable among us. And I intend to wear that financial judgment as a badge of honor because I need to show veterans the significant risks they could face if they retained an unscrupulous lawyer to represent them.

With this judgment, I have become a real-life example of how some lawyers will treat veterans if they think they can get away with it. You see, litigation finance is a ruthless aspect of our legal system; and your advocate must be ready to go head-to-head with unsavory people. Fortunately, the Marine Corps trained me to take a punch and keep fighting. And that is what I am doing with the Victory Litigation Fund. I am using my skills to fight for veterans, as seen in these unregistered securities offerings.

In fact, I am happy to allow all potential clients and investors to determine my integrity, motivation, and asset management skills when deciding to participate in this project based on the totality of the documentation I can now disclose. Our sons, daughters, brothers, and sisters volunteered to serve their country. They were ready to sacrifice their lives for our country. But they didn't realize the real danger would come from being exposed to toxic poisons by their own Government and on their home bases. And now greedy trial lawyers are lining up to profit from their pain and suffering. We can't let our veterans be taken advantage of. I took the fight to this industry before. Please join me in taking the fight to them again. Thank you for watching this brief video to learn more about the Victory Litigation Fund.
